A Negro youth was charged with petit larceny and destruction of property after police investigated break-ins to parking meters on the city lot at Pacific and Ohio early Wednesday morning.

Police were holding Henry Fulcher, Jr., 17, Route 4, in the city jail.

Officers first received information that some subjects were breaking into meters on the lot at 2:40 a.m. and a Negro man was taken into custody and held for investigation.

At 3 a.m. police received another telephone call that the thieves were again prying on meters in the lot. Police arrested the Fulcher youth in the 200 block of North Ohio on the second trip.

Sgt. Charles Stuart reported three meters were broken open and two were damaged. No money loss was estimated.

Following Fulcher's arrest, police released the first Negro they were holding for investigation.

Stohr said Pekarek told him he took his eyes off the road momentarily to glance at his girl friend and the car crossed the center line enough to collide with the side of the oncoming Morast auto.

The injured were brought to Bothwell Hospital in a Gillespie ambulance.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 30-year-old man, good-looking, well-built, well-read and well-traveled. I have devoted so much time to cultural interests, music, art, and literature that I neglected the business aspect of my life. As a result I have very little money.

I would like to meet a fine woman and get married but this poses a real problem. I cannot stand homely women and I can't afford to marry a poor one. I have met dozens of women with money but I just can't look at them for more than 10 minutes without feeling it would not be worth it.

The beautiful women I've known are all searching for someone who can set them up in style which of course, I cannot.

I am serious about this, Ann. I am not a crackpot. I have many fine qualities and could make a woman very happy. I need some outside help. Do you happen to know of anybody. I will be happy to send a picture.

Q.T.X.

Dear Q.T.X.: I HAVE a picture. Please don't send one.

Why don't you forget about both money and beauty and try to find a girl with brains? There should be at least one working set in each family and I see no evidence that you have any.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a man who has a job as bookkeeper in a credit union and goes around telling everybody (after three martinis) who owes what?

This is the situation in our organization and it is more than I can stand. I am a member of the credit union but I do not owe them anything. Several of my friends do, however, and I am furious on their account. It is embarrassing for one friend in particular to have it known that he is in debt up to the legal limit.

Should I tip off the chief executive who would have the man moved at once? Frankly, I detest him but I don't want to be responsible for a family man losing his job. Your advice is wanted. — BIX

Dear BIX: If "Loudmouth" has been talking through his martinis for several months, his days are numbered. Keep quiet and let one of the injured parties give him the axe.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 13-year-old girl who has a problem spelled M-O-T-H-E-R.

I love her but she is driving me nuts. Ever since I was a small child my mother had to help me do everything, whether it was homework, sewing on a button, selecting books from the library, or choosing the right dress to wear to a party.

Just now mother asked me to look up a number in the phone book. I looked it up and she said, "That doesn't sound correct." She then went and looked up the number herself. I feel as if I can't do anything right. I get boiling mad when she stands right behind me when I dry glasses or silverware. Lots of times she dries things over after I have finished.

Please tell me what to do. It's a real problem.—HELPED TOO MUCH

Dear Helped Too Much: You bet it's a real problem and I hope your mother reads my answer and pays attention to it.

Of course, a mother can dry a glass better, or sew a hem straighter, or the feeling of experience. Far more important than the shiny glass or the straight hem is the feeling of achievement that comes from doing something on one's own.

This world is filled with emotional cripples who can't make a decision or — having made a decision — are never sure it was the right one. They had mothers like yours.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Southerners Hold Tongue Against LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many Southern Democratic senators are walking a tight political rope in their efforts to maintain their party regularity without tying themselves to President Johnson's campaign.

Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., is the latest to join the ranks of those who may preserve the kind of "golden silence" practiced by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., in the 1960 campaign when former vice president Richard M. Nixon carried Virginia. Byrd has given no indication of what he plans to do this year.

Talmadge said in a terse statement Monday that he has always been a Democrat and expects to remain one.

He added: "I have not been requested to make any speeches for the party and have no plans to do so."

"I will continue to vote on each and every measure (in the Senate) in accordance with my judgment in the best interests of my country and my state."

Talmadge is one of 21 Southern Democrats who voted against the Civil Rights Act

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Rep. Richard Bolling says he has taken action to prevent possible fraud in some Kansas City precincts in the primary election.

Bolling, Democrat, seeks re-nomination in the 5th District.

"I've taken all steps necessary to be sure that I won't be counted out in this election," he said Monday. "The voters of Kansas City are entitled to cast their vote in secret and with all the security it takes to keep it secret."

Bolling didn't say what steps he had taken.

A police department spokesman said Bolling conferred with Chief Clarence Kelley July 17 and urged vigilance at the polls, saying there might be efforts to deliver certain wards. The spokesman said Bolling made no requests for specific assignments of policemen.

World News Glimpses

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Three Nationalist Chinese air force transport planes with 18 persons aboard crashed Monday night during training maneuvers in southern Formosa.

The planes were flying in close formation when they crashed on 2,400-foot Mt. Kuei Chung.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Any support Malaysia received from Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman's trip to the United States will not deter Indonesia's determination to crush the neighboring federation, Indonesia's army commander said today.

The declaration by Lt. Gen. Ahmad Yani was the first top-level reaction to President Johnson's promises of training assistance for some Malaysia military personnel and the sale of jet training planes, helicopters and landing craft.

"Whatever might come, Indonesia will continue carrying out its confrontation until Malaysia is crushed," Yani said.

Singapore took another big step toward normal today with the lifting of all daylight curfew restrictions on the racially troubled island.

There were no racial clashes during the night between Chinese and Malays. The curfew still is in force from 6 p.m. to 5:30 a.m.

Markets reported no shortages of food, and prices dropped to the level prevailing before the racial violence.

OPORTO, Portugal (AP)—A check of hospitals and morgues has scaled down the death toll in Portugal's worst rail disaster from 133 to 89. Officials said nearly 100 others were injured.

The accident occurred Sunday night when the rear car of a two-car train came uncoupled at a curve, plunged down an embankment with more than 250 passengers and hit a stone abutment.

Railway officials said the car

Carter County Farmer Vows Mules Best for Farm Labor

LUOILE MASSOR
The Poplar Bluff
American - Republic
For The Associated Press
VAN BUREN, Mo. (AP)—The Missouri mule will never disappear from the farms of Carter County if men like Homer White have their say.

White tried tractors and decided he liked mules better. Mules don't pack the soil like a heavy tractor, he points out. And, besides, he adds, they cost less, they always start and they grow and eat their own fuel.

And further, he says, they are not inane mechanical contraptions, but living, breathing, thinking animals capable of loving and hating and sometimes putting a man in his place by looking him straight in the eye and putting up an argument.

White contends that mules are smarter than most men, but he adds when they get too smart it's time to trade them off.

"A smart mule gets balky and lazy and can out-smart you when you try to catch them," White says. "And, there is nothing as stubborn as a stubborn mule."

Yet White says he loves the critters and wouldn't trade one good mule for a flock of tractors.

A good mule, he says, is one that never steps on a plant, even when turning at the end of the row; one that obeys and understands orders and one that comes when you call him. He

One-Legged Youth Back In Ball Game

TIPTON, Okla. (AP)—Less than a year ago a heartbroken 13-year-old Little Leaguer sobbed, but vowed he would walk again someday.

It was Sept. 10, 1963, and Stanley Manning had just been told his right leg had been amputated at the knee. Stanley—or Bub, as he is called, "tried to hold back his tears but the thought he might never again play baseball was too much for him."

His leg was severed when he was struck by a car while riding his bicycle in Tipton.

Months passed for him in a hospital at nearby Lawton, but he never lost his desire to wear a baseball uniform again.

Less than a month ago Bub's hopes were realized. Doctors said he would have to be careful, but he could try out for the team. His coach, Don Royal, the brother of Texas University football Coach Darrell Royal, told Bub to put on a uniform and try pitching.

His first game was against the small town of Cache in southwestern Oklahoma. Royal told Bub to throw a few and when game time came he was signaled to the mound.

Bub's teammates, most of whom are orphans from a home near here, knew the importance of a win for the crippled youngster.

Tipton won 15-4, and Bub pitched all the way.

The youngster is back at his old position now, catcher, and isn't doing badly. "I can get down okay. But I'm not near as fast as I was," he says.

"I'm just happy Coach Royal is letting me play. I know I'm not as good as I was, but I'm sure not going to give up."

And he probably won't. Doctors were amazed at his progress while he was in the hospital.

And one nurse said, "When he was first moved to our floor we would go in to see him and our hearts would nearly break. We knew he was in severe pain, but he would always manage a smile. After a while we quit feeling sorry for him and started sending youngsters down to visit our smiling boy."

An Associated Press story told of Bub's misfortunes and mail began pouring in from throughout the nation. At least one person from every state managed a letter and baseball players opened their hearts to him.

Bub's idol, New York Yankee star Mickey Mantle who also is a native Oklahoman, was the first baseball player to write. "Hang in there, and stay tough," Mantle said.

Next month Bub and his family will take their annual vacation to Kansas City to see the Yankees play.

Bub knows he won't be a professional baseball player when he grows up; he's given up that dream. He does talk about a sports career.

"I think I might be a coach," he says. "That would be one good way to help someone who had the same bad luck I had. It will take the rest of my life to pay back the favors people have done for me."

The Colosseum, the earliest great amphitheatre in Rome, was named after the colossal statue of Nero which stood close to it. Its over-all dimensions were 620 feet by 513 feet. The arena was 287 feet by 180 feet and the seating capacity is estimated at about 50,000.

Neat Appearance Required by Judge

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—When Judge William A. Considine calls for order in his Essex County courtroom, he also means orderly appearance.

When a fifty-ish woman wearing yellow slacks appeared as a witness in a divorce proceeding Monday, the judge refused to let her testify until she was more suitably attired.

Considine told the woman: "It is not my personal dignity you affront, but the dignity of the state of New Jersey."

Takes 'Dough' To Develop Talent In Show Business

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—When you look at show business real close, you wonder why it isn't called "dough business."

It takes money as well as talent. It costs about as much money now to develop a new night club act as it does to buy a three-bedroom house in the suburbs. It costs as much as it did to put on a Broadway drama only a generation ago.

For example, let us take the case of Claire and Merna Barry, currently on the nation's supper club circuit.

The two singing sisters earn a four-figure salary for a single night's engagement. But they

The program on developing responsibilities in children was given by Mrs. Buddy Kinder.

Mrs. Kinder, president, opened the meeting by leading club collect and singing of "Missouri Hymn." Devotion was given by Mrs. Karen Chamberlain. Mrs. was a guest.

It was decided to go to Arrow Rock for a picnic at 7 p. m. Aug. 14.

Roll call was answered by 18 members, 18 4-H members and children. Mrs. Robert Wilson Forrest Reid read June minutes. Benediction in unison closed the meeting.

Machine-Age Tools Pour Forth In Greater Volume

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The tools for expanding the machine age are going to pour forth in even greater volume in the months ahead. Both new orders and backlogs are piling up.

The soaring orders for machine tools mean a lot more than just prosperity for their makers.

They are bets that manufacturers are laying that good times will be around for many months to come.

They forecast increased spending for business expansion.

They emphasize the trend toward still more mechanization. They reveal how relaxed depreciation regulations and lower tax rates are being put to use.

They are based on the belief that consumers will have more money to spend for manufactured goods and sturdy confidence in their ability to meet any debt payments for borrowing to spend.

The National Machine Tool Building Association says new orders in June reached $160.9 million, the highest for any month in eight years and more than double the volume in June 1963.

Orders for the first half of 1964 are almost double those in the like period of 1963. And the backlog of unfilled orders has grown, lengthening delivery times. This in itself prods some manufacturers into ordering now, knowing they may have to wait to install the new machines they want for their modernization or expansion plans.

High Car Production

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico produced a record 33,000 automobiles in the first half of this year, preliminary estimates show, and consumer demand is reported running ahead of production.

Machine tool making tends to be an up-and-down business. In bad times, or when a business downturn is expected, orders fall off fast as manufacturers pull in their horns.

Today with the economy in general growing steadily, the urge to buy tools to make the machines that turn out consumer products is mounting. This apparently is the main drive behind the June spurt in tool ordering.

Another is the continuing trend toward more mechanization, to bypass costly man labor and make more goods with less effort, faster, and in greater quantity.

Whatever their motives—more money in the till, better current sales, expectations of still better business conditions to come—corporations have been steadily raising their sights this year on their expansion plans. The sums that are tagged to flow into new plants and equipment this year are now put at $44 billion by the Department of Commerce.

Negroes Join Delegation From Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Georgia's delegation to the Democratic National Convention — including Negroes for the first time — "is made up of loyal Democrats who represent our party," says Gov. Carl Sanders.

The names of the 64 delegates and 52 of 53 alternates were announced Tuesday by Sanders and Travis Stewart, executive director of the Georgia Democratic party. Four Negroes — two delegates and two alternates — were included on the list of those who will go to the convention opening Aug. 24 in Atlantic City.

There was only one Negro — an alternate — among the Georgia delegation to the Republican National Convention in San Francisco.

Sanders, asked the significance of including Negroes among the Democratic delegation, replied:

"This is not a social club. This is a political organization and it is right and proper that we have a cross section of the voters of the state represented. This delegation is made up of loyal Democrats who represent our party."

Missing from the list — at their request — are U.S. Sens. Richard B. Russell and Herman Talmadge. Both said they had previous commitments, but Talmadge stated flatly that he is still a Democrat.

The Negro delegates are State Sen. Leroy Johnson and attorney A. T. Walden, both of Atlanta. Johnson is the first Negro to win election to the legislature in half a century. Walden is a political power in Atlanta who worked for the Democratic party in the 1960 presidential election.

The alternates are T. B. Hooper of Macon and Mrs. P. Q. Yancy of Atlanta.

World News Glimpses

MOSCOW (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant met Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the Kremlin today for talks on the Soviet Union's overdue debts for its share of U.N. peacekeeping operations.

Thant handed the premier a richly engraved Burmese silver bowl which Khrushchev admiringly said was "beautiful and should be exhibited in a museum."

Under the U.N. Charter, the Soviet Union could lose its General Assembly vote this fall if it does not pay part of the debt. Soviet spokesmen have contended that this would wreck the world organization.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist air force said a navigational error by the lead plane apparently caused the crash of three military transport planes into a mountain in south Formosa.

Eighteen Nationalist Chinese airmen were killed Monday when the C46s smashed into 2,400-foot M.T. Kuei Chung 150 miles off Taipei. They were returning in a formation of nine planes from night maneuvers.

CAIRO (AP) — The explosion which blew up the Egyptian ammunition ship Star of Alexandria in Bone harbor was an act of sabotage, the newspaper Al-Ahram claimed today.

The newspaper said Egyptian frogmen working in the wreckage found explosives which were not part of the ship's cargo.

Last reports from Algeria said 108 persons were killed in the explosion.

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia says Canadian pledges of support for his country's struggle with Indonesia were "beyond my expectations, beyond my dreams."

Rahman told newsmen Tuesday night after meeting with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson that Canada promised to train Malaysian pilots and to supply long-term credit for the purchase of Canadian planes.

Southern Democrats Push Unity Meeting

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Gov. John McKeithen says Southern governors should meet and decide a course of action before the Democratic National Convention.

McKeithen, in New Orleans for a meeting with city officials, said Tuesday that efforts to arrange such a conference are under way, although he had no connection with it.

Wirtz Urges Mayors To Form Youth Corps

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz has urged the nation's mayors to take the initiative in forming home-town youth corps which would be authorized by the antipoverty bill before Congress.

He told the annual American Municipal Association convention Tuesday that 90 days after passage of the bill, the federal government would be ready to help enlist 150,000 unemployed boys and girls between 16 and 21 in such corps for job training and placement. He placed the number of unemployed persons in that age bracket at 1,200,000.

It Costs More Now To Wed in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The cost of getting married in Louisiana rose $1.50 at noon today.

A bill signed into law by Gov. John J. McKeithen Tuesday boosted the cost of a marriage license from $3.50 to $5. The increase was necessary because of the cost of handling paper work.

OTHER SIDE—ANOTHER WORLD—New addition to St. Peter's Basilica in Rome is the "door of death"—a special entrance for funeral processions. Fifteen years in the making by sculptor Giacomo Manzù, the massive bronze panels bear raised figures symbolic of the passing of man, in both the liturgical and literal sense.

Housewrecking Solves Hypertension Problem

MANCHESTER, Conn. (AP) — Betty Choman is a 112-pound grandmother who wrecks houses.

She is the foreman of a five-man wrecking gang, and the members of the gang say she is a working boss.

Mrs. Choman and her husband, Anthony, own the demolition firm, but her husband also is a printing department supervisor, so she has complete charge.

Mrs. Choman said she once was ill but regained her health 10 years ago because she started working on the wrecking crew.

Choman agreed. "If you have trouble with hypertension, nerves, if you can't sleep, do some housewrecking," he said. "It will be the best thing for you."

On List of Supporters Bush Backers Slip Up

By JACK FLACH

Chief of The Globe-Democrat Jefferson City Bureau

JEFFERSON CITY, MO.—Someone was apparently over-anxious in preparing the list of prominent citizens to back Lt. Governor Hilary A. Bush for Governor when Mrs. Thomas C. Hennings Jr., widow of the Missouri Senator, was named as secretary of the Bush Citizens Committee.

In the first place, Mrs. Hennings Jr., does not live in St. Louis, as is listed on the stationery letterhead sent out by Miss Hennings for the Election of - Bush - for - Governor. She lives in Washington.

In the second place, she has sent a letter and contribution "for a victory" to Mr. Bush's bitter rival for the Democratic nomination, Secretary of State Warren E. Hearnes, it was learned.

MOTHER CONTACTED
The mother of Senator Hennings, Mrs. Thomas C. Hennings Sr., does live in St. Louis. When contacted by The Globe-Democrat to find out if perhaps there was a typographical error on the stationery letterhead and the "Jr." should have been "Sr." she denied that she was on any committee.

A Birthday Party For George Goldman

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Eighty of George Goldman's friends threw a dinner party for his 75th birthday Tuesday.

One of them was former President Harry S. Truman, himself just turned 80.

Goldman's friendship, Truman said, never wavered in all the years he has known him. "Even," the former president added, "when people said I was no good."

Goldman, who started in business as a jeweler, is now a banker.

Eviction Fight Ends and House Is Pushed Down

SUMMIT, Ill. (AP) — Wayne Hamilton's last ditch resistance to eviction under an order condemning his 80-year-old one-story frame house on the $157-million Southwest Expressway route, ended Tuesday and the house was tumbled down.

Hamilton, 31, had threatened to defend the place with a 12-gauge shotgun. He sat in an overstuffed chair in his living room when sheriff's policemen got in by kicking out a front door panel.

The shotgun was lying unloaded across his knees when Chief

Deputy Harry M. Magers told him, "I hate to do this. Will you cooperate?"

Hamilton replied he would not and Magers and two other deputies carried him outdoors. Hamilton's wife, Jeanette, 30, and their three daughters, aged 6 to 9, followed. A moment later, a bulldozer toppled the house, furnishings and all.

Hamilton said he paid $16,500 for the place six years ago. The state awarded him $13,800. Hamilton said it was worth between $25,000 and $27,000.

Senate Leadership Hopeful Of Success On Foreign Aid

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders hope to hand President Johnson another victory this week by passing his $3.4-billion foreign aid authorization bill without major changes.

Devling-Smith Vows Exchanged On June 20th

In a setting of candlelight, Miss Janice Elaine Devling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Devling, Kansas City, and Mr. Charles Nichol Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichol Smith, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. May, Sr., Smithton, were united in marriage June 20, at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Kansas City North. The Rev. Edwin F. Kagin officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of misty white pea mist styled with a high scalloped Sabrina neckline enhanced with Alencon lace motifs trimmed with sequins and pearls. Long sleeves tapered into traditional points over the hands. The stermine bodice was graced by a rose at the back waist on the sash. A full gathered skirt drifted into a chapel train. Her illusion veil was held in place by a rose fashioned of Alencon lace trimmed with sequins and pearls. Her bouquet was an arrangement of orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Cecelia Kech, Kansas City, was maid of honor. She wore an organza floor length gown of white styled with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The natural waistline enhanced a controlled skirt with unpressed pleats and a butterfly back.

Bridesmaids, Miss Judy Cain, Miss Judy Huffman and Miss Bonnie Robbins, cousin of the bride, all of Kansas City, and Mrs. Barbara Shanks, Lawrence, Kan., wore gowns like that of the maid of honor. They wore short illusion veils held in place by single roses of silk organza. Each bridal assistant carried a single purple chrysanthemum.

Mr. John Timberlake, Kansas City, was best man. Groomsman were Mr. Gary Wahrenbrock, cousin of the bridegroom, Sedalia, Mr. Jim Shanks, cousin of the bride, Lawrence, Kan., Mr. Larry Devling, brother of the bride, and Mr. Benny Cain, both of Kansas City.

Miss Roberta Kagin, Kansas City, played organ selections and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Robert Gatewood, Kansas City.

Miss Joyce Ann Hevalow and Miss Nancy Matthys, Kansas City, were flower girls. They wore floor-length gowns styled like the bridesmaids'. Their veils were held in place by single roses of white satin. They carried white baskets trimmed with purple ribbons and scattered petals from purple chrysanthemums in the path of the bride.

Master James Richard Hevalow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Hevalow, North Kansas City, was ringbearer.

Ushers were Mr. Chet Robbins, Mr. Howard Donaldson, Mr. Danny Matthys and Mr. Curt Wednit, all of Kansas City.

Candlelighters were, Miss Mary Lou Devling, Miss Pamela Suzette Hevalow, Mr. Steve Cain and Mr. Tommy Matthys, all of Kansas City.

Miss Cheryl Pyle, Kansas City, assisted at the guest book. Mrs. Nina Shanks and Mrs. Irene Homan, Kansas City, assisted a caterer in serving the cake and punch at a reception after the ceremony.

Mrs. Norma Robbins, Kansas City and Miss Cheryl Wahrenbrock, Sedalia, attended gifts.

Mrs. Verna Devling, Kansas City, assisted during the professional.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are at home in Kansas City.

But their chances of matching last week's performance, when they put through the administration's high-priority antipoverty bill, are threatened by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore.

Morse, who has been gunning for the bill for weeks, has a flock of amendments ready, aimed at trimming it by $466 million. He says it could take a week to dispose of them.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, predicts passage this week without any "crippling cuts."

Before it can get into the foreign aid fight the Senate must dispose of a resolution growing out of the investigation of the financial dealings of Bobby Baker, former secretary to the Senate Democrats. The resolution would require senators and Senate employees to make annual disclosure of their incomes.

It may have been disposed of Friday night when the Senate voted to create a permanent bipartisan committee to police the conduct of senators and Senate employees.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said the action had taken "a lot of steam" out of the disclosure resolution. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said it had made the resolution unnecessary.

Mansfield, who hopes to complete the Senate's business before the Democratic National Convention starts in Atlantic City on Aug. 24, has two appropriations bills ready for action this week in case the foreign aid bill is finished up early. They would appropriate $46.7 billion for the Defense Department and $210.3 million to run Congress.

House action this week centers on two bills, one increasing Social Security benefits and raising the tax that supports them, and the other creating a national wilderness system.

Made $10,000 From False Injury Claims

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A Kansas City man has collected about $10,000 insurance by deliberately causing more than 35 automobile accidents in four years, a prosecutor said.

Joseph Lewis Appleby, 40, pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Monday to a grand jury indictment of collecting on a false injury claim.

Donald L. Mason, assistant prosecutor, said the state had 42 witnesses ready to testify that Appleby operated in this manner:

Driving an old car, Appleby would slam on the brakes suddenly so that his car was rammed from the rear by a truck. Then he would tell the insurance adjuster his neck and back hurt and he was going to see a doctor. He usually settled for about $100 or $200 cash.

Some Cities Do Not Have Enough Progress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bureau of Public Roads made public Tuesday a list of 79 cities and urban areas which it says are not making sufficient progress in planning new construction under the 1962 Federal-Aid Highway Act.

Failure of the areas to complete planning by next July 1, the deadline provided in the act, could mean loss of federal money for highway construction.

Rex M. Whitton, federal highway administrator, said each of the areas "still has adequate time to meet the requirements of the act, but only if they accelerate their progress."

The cities and metropolitan area listed by the bureau in the laggard category included:

East St. Louis, Ill.; Kansas City, Mo.-Kan., and St. Louis, Mo. - Ill.; Oklahoma City and Lawton, Okla.; and Fort Smith, Ark.

JOUST IN SPORT—A grass covered battlefield in Somerset, England, is the setting for this sports scene out of the past. The joust tournament was the first of its kind to be held since knighthood was in flower.

Rising Profits Certifying Longest Economic Upturn

NEW YORK (AP)—The golden stamp of rising profits is certifying the nation's longest economic upturn of peacetime.

As records fall almost daily, top business firms are testifying to growth in many lines: profits, sales, physical plant, wage scales, dividends.

The big are getting bigger to the joy of their stockholders, the tax collectors, those who may be getting new jobs or longer work weeks, and the economic planners.

Most of the earnings statements report sizable increases over a year ago, and many boast of historic highs. A few industries, some individual companies, prove exceptions.

The steel reports which reach a climax this week are an example. Many of those already on record for the April-June quarter results show slight drops from a year ago, when their business was feverish rather than normal because of orders to hedge against a possible strike. These include: Republic, Armco, Allegheny Ludlum, Jones & Laughlin, Sharon, Colorado Fuel & Iron.

Even in steel some companies are ahead of last year's busy second quarter: Inland, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Acme, Granite City, Cleveland-Cliffs Iron.

The railroads are thoroughly mixed. Many were wallowing in troubles a year ago. Second-quarter gains this year are naturally fantastic by comparison: New York Central, Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio. Others ahead this year are Norfolk &

William R. Dooley, 2406 West Second Terrace, has been employed as an auditor by Missouri Farmers Association, Columbia. Dooley is married and has four children. He will continue to reside in Sedalia. Dooley is a graduate of Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg where he majored in accounting.

Western, Wabash, Delaware & Hudson.

But more roads are showing declines in earnings in the 1964 quarter: Chicago & North Western, Missouri Pacific, Chicago Great Western, Soo Line, Monon, Western Maryland. Three are operating at losses: Milwaukee, North Pacific, Central of New Jersey.

The big oil companies are riding a profit boom. Earnings after taxes were up in the second quarter for Socony Mobil, Texaco, Shell, Indiana Standard, Continental, Tidewater.

The Big Three in autos all set records: General Motors, Ford, Chrysler.

Runaway Girls Poor At Trading Horses

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Two girls who ran away from home "just because" have learned one thing from their experience: As horse traders, they are flops.

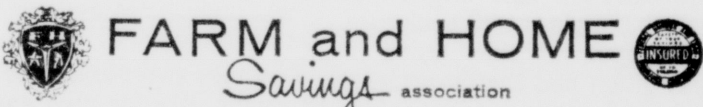

Liddie Bell Baker, 9, and Janie Lavelle Musick, 7, left their homes about 11 a.m. Monday leading Liddie Bell's 4-month-old Shetland pony. Before the girls were found by police in late afternoon they had sold the pony for $1, and spent 10 cents of it for potato chips. Police are looking for the pony and the man who bought it.

New Sedalia Bank Opening

"Nobody owns this bank," said James W. Ripley, executive vice-president of the Missouri State Bank of Sedalia, located at Tenth and Limit, in speaking of the new bank, "it is owned by the people of the area." The bank formally opens Thursday.

The building which originally was Reinhart-Welch Hardware, and later T & G Motors, has been completely remodeled, so completely that it doesn't look like the same building.

The front of the building, which faces west, has an attractive entrance of glass designed by Findland Glass Co., with two doors one in and one out, and then a vestibule with small ceramic tile floor, glass at the north end and a walk-up window on the south, encased in a wall of yellow Arkansas stone. The glass entrance between the vestibule and the lobby also has two doors and the in doors are automatic.

The walls of the lobby are beige but the wall behind the six walnut windows and the west wall of the inside office of the walkup window is a brilliant shade between a deep peach and orange which, according to William T. Wright, Jr., who picked the colors, is called Sun-king.

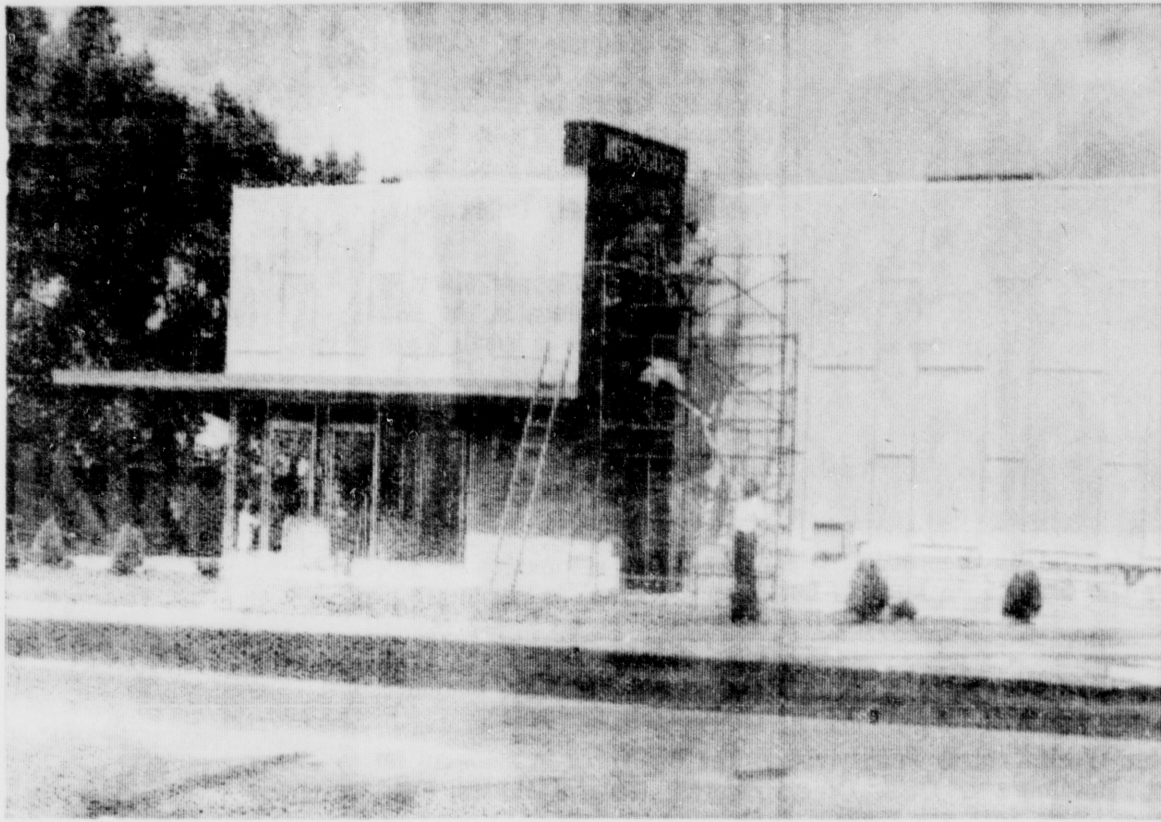

The wall of Ripley's office at the extreme rear, back of the open office area was supposed to be green, but from the lobby it appeared a nice bright blue through the glass wall enclosure. The carpet for this office is moss green and the draperies a lovely soft green with golden fringe, so the walls just had to be green. Another coat of green paint was put on but it was still blue, then one of the men discovered that it was the difference in the light fixture, they changed it from a cool white to a warm white and the room became green. The desk in Ripley's office is walnut, and the chairs for the customers are antique gold and walnut.

The office to the north of Ripley's is similar except the coloring carried out is gold and the walls beige.

The carpeting used in the lobby and the open office area is autumn glow and along the north side of the room and in the office area are mahogany desks and chairs in keeping with the gold and Sun-king shades.

The security vault and safety deposit vaults at the front on the south side are in beige and this bank not only has a complete burglar alarm system but a photoguard, which takes pictures of anyone who might try to burglarize or hold-up the bank. Off the little hall that leads directly to the rear of the building from the lobby are two small booths where customers may look over the contents of their lock-boxes or clip their coupons.

Then a large room, approximately 600 square feet, is to the south of the hall. The floor is beige tile, the walls aqua. In this large room is the book vault for record storage, and for the conservation of space, the air conditioning and heating systems are above it. This room is fire-proof and blast-proof, and in it is the electronic bookkeeping machine and everything goes through this machine. Here, too, is the night depository, and the drive-up window, as well as desks. Permanent photography records of all customers, accounts are made to be used later in case there is a need if the customer has lost his own records.

The next large room to the south is the community room which small organized groups may use free of charge for meetings. It is also a lounge for the employees and has a small kitchen section with built-in refrigerator, and a sink with cabinets above and cabinets and drawers below. There, too, are tables and chairs and the walls are also aqua.

Two nice rest rooms and locker rooms, one for men and one for women are to the south of the hall and both are in beige.

The door to the rear, opens off the parking lot, to the hall and for the convenience of those using the community room at night, leads to that room. The door to the lobby and the one to Ripley's office, will be locked.

The bank is very modern in every respect.

Ripley, who lives at 1003 Sylvia Drive, is a Pettis Countian, even though he has been away for a long time. He has been in the banking business all his life, following in the footsteps of his father, who is president of the LaMonte Community Bank. He came to the Missouri State Bank as executive vice-president, and senior officer and manager, from Pleasant Hill, where he had been vice-president and cashier of the bank there for seven years. He has worked in six banks — from smallest to city banks. He has served for 13 years in the senior office capacity in banking business. He is married and has three children, two boys and a girl.

Ernest Guthrie, cashier, also was born and reared in LaMonte, and for 13 years associated with the Bank of America, San Jose, Calif. He was in the Navy before that. He is presently living at LaMonte and will be joined by his wife and four children, two boys and two girls in August.

Other members of the personnel are Mrs. Kathy Hammonds, wife of John Hammonds, 715 East Sixth. They have one child.

Mrs. Opal Rinebarger, wife of Jess Rinebarger, 903 Leone. Mrs. Louise Bohlken, wife of Richard Bohlken, lives on Route 2, and they have one son.

This seems to be a bank where people have come back home. The receptionist is Miss Sandra Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gates, and with her parents she has moved back from Long Beach, Calif., where she was employed with the Bank of America. She is residing at 1016 South Moniteau.

Miss Margaret Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, Route 4, has also come back from Kansas City, where she has been employed at the National Bank of North Kansas City.

Bid on Post Office

KANSAS CITY (AP) — J. J. Altman of East St. Louis, Ill., is the apparent low bidder at $1,893,449 for construction of a new post office and courthouse building in Hannibal, Mo., the General Services Administration regional office said Tuesday.

Awarding of the contract is expected within a month, the GSA said. The next lowest figure, $1,906,609 was bid by the Buckley Construction Co. of Fenton, Mo.

Mrs. Rowena Williams, widow of Abe Williams, has also returned from the State of California to work in the bank.

The custodian is John Dawson.

The directors of the bank are: Allen Zink, chairman of the board, E. W. Thompson, president; P. Evans Little, Dick Monsees, Olen Howard, Dan Robinson, Gib Owen, Philip Lampkin, Charles Lampkin, George Schliechman, C. H. Joy and Ripley.

The bank has 130 stockholders.

French Angered At Desecration To a Monument

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — About 20 angry French men and women gathered today at the remains of a French war monument wrecked by Vietnamese students and hurled insults at passing natives.

"Fight the live enemy of the present, the Viet Cong, and not the dead enemy of the past," one Frenchman shouted to Vietnamese standing near the remains of the memorial in downtown Saigon.

Police dispersed the French without violence when a group of Vietnamese students arrived and a clash threatened.

Students wrecked the huge bronze monument to France's war dead Tuesday night in a de-

Terry Proud Of Record At Peru's Helm

LIMA, Peru (AP)—President Fernando Belaunde Terry is starting his second year in office, proud of his record and confident of the future.

In reply to questions submitted by The Associated Press, the 50-year-old president of Peru said major achievements of his administration include enactment of the nation's first agrarian reform law, doubled dollar reserves, increased construction of highways and low-cost housing, increased foreign investment and prospects of stronger relations with the United States.

He said elections have proved "that communism lacks backing" in Peru, and that the identification of Cuba's Fidel Castro with communism "limits that foreign influence to a very small following."

Belaunde, elected for a six-year term, said he considered the revival of municipal elections as a major achievement during his first year in office.

"For more than 40 years Peruvian heads of government, on taking office, appointed at will approximately 15,000 mayors and municipal officeholders," he recalled.

The president said his government's main objective now "is to maintain and strengthen a climate of human solidarity and social justice within constitutional bounds."

Pointing to economic gains, Belaunde said:

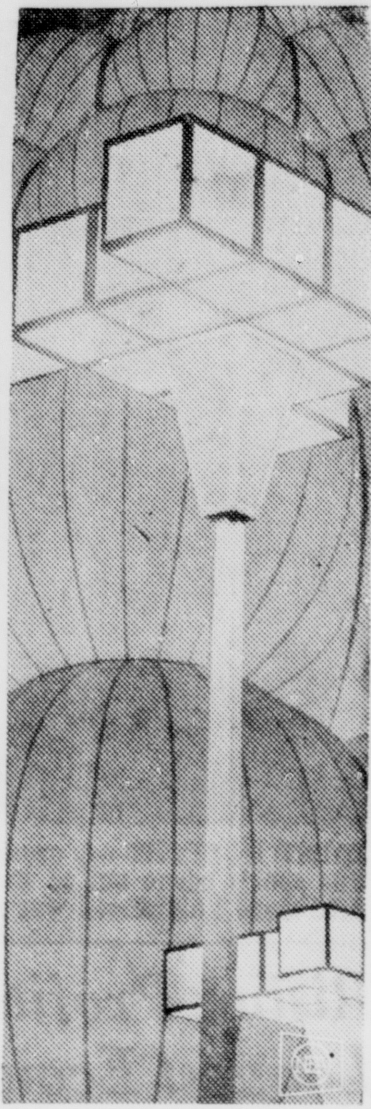

"When I assumed the presidency, Peru was unjustly bypassed as far as the granting of credits go. Within one year we have obtained loans from international development institutions amounting to $124 million."

Peru, the president declared, is "faithfully fulfilling its role in the Alliance for Progress" while the Peace Corps is helping to strengthen the bonds between Peru and the United States.

monstration against President Charles de Gaulle's proposal that Viet Nam be neutralized and the war against the Communist Viet Cong ended.

As police stood by with hands folded, screaming youths pulled down a 30-foot statue of two French infantrymen and towed it off. They also toppled a bronze female figure representing peace.

The students wound up their demonstration with speeches calling for a break in relations with France, and expansion of the war against the Communist to North Viet Nam.

Blough Predicts Good Outlook For Steel Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — The outlook for the economy and the steel industry appears good for the balance of the year, says Roger M. Blough, chairman of U.S. Steel Corp.

He made the observation at a news conference Tuesday after U.S. Steel reported earnings for the three months ended June 30.

The company, largest steel-maker in the country, earned $60,696,096, or $1 a share, in the second quarter. This compared with $73,214,182 or $1.23 a share, in the 1963 second quarter and $51,546,002, or 84 cents a share, in the first quarter of this year. In the first half, U.S. Steel's profits totaled $112,242,098, or $1.84 a share, against $103,132,956, or $1.67 a share in the 1963 first half.

Directors declared a regular dividend of 50 cents a share, payable Sept. 10 to stockholders of record Aug. 7.

Republic Steel, No. 3 in the industry, reported earlier that its earnings fell to $17,765,078, or $1.13 a share, in the second quarter from $21,993,374, or $1.40 a share, in the like 1963 period. Blough said the economy seems to be "on an even keel" and "one could be modestly optimistic about the rest of the year."

Dr. Traywick To an Omaha School Post

OMAHA (AP)—Dr. Leland E. Traywick, who has resigned as president of Southwest Missouri State College at Springfield, Mo., will take office Feb. 1, 1965, as the eighth president of the Municipal University of Omaha.

Traywick, 49, was named Tuesday by the board of regents of the Omaha school. His salary will be $25,000 a year compared to $27,500 received by the outgoing president, Dr. Milo Bail, who has headed the school since July 1, 1948.

Dr. Bail announced last February he wished to retire.

At a news conference Dr. Traywick said "Our free enterprise system has no fear of Communists in open debate. We will win that debate every time."

He said college students and faculty members should be allowed to hear and debate with a carefully chosen, responsible Communist on campus.

"I would like to have a Communist speak on campus, provided there can be cross examination of the person from the floor by anyone present," he said. "The Communist should be carefully chosen, not irresponsible. He should be a person with his ideas well documented who can state his case."

Dr. Traywick said there are not just two views on any question but "five, ten or a million sides." He said he wants students to receive all views on any question.

Dr. Traywick, a native of Okmulgee, Okla., received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Missouri and his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois. He served as president of Southwest Missouri State since 1961, and resigned recently in an administrative dispute with the school's board of regents. He had been assistant professor of economics at Western Reserve University in Cleveland and assistant dean of the College of Business and Public Service at Michigan State University.

He served in the Army in World War II and before that was an economist with the War Production Board and the office of the chief of ordnance.

Negro Woman Named To Rights Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Frankie Muse Freeman of St. Louis and Eugene Patterson of Atlanta were acted upon favorably Tuesday by the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee to fill two vacancies on the Civil Rights Commission.

Mrs. Freeman is a Negro attorney active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Patterson is editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

The subcommittee heard testimony by and for the nominees and voted to send both names to the full Senate Judiciary Committee. Senate confirmation was predicted. The two vacancies were caused by resignations.

Missouri's two Democratic senators, Stuart Symington and Edward V. Long, and Rep. Leonard K. Sullivan, D-Mo., appeared in Mrs. Freeman's behalf.

Post Office Crooks Facing Indictment

NEW YORK (AP) — A grand jury has indicted 13 men described by federal prosecutors as "the largest gang of burglars to plague the Post Office Department since its founding" in 1794.

The office of U.S. Atty. Joseph P. Hoey in Brooklyn gave that description of the men, charged with looting seven New Jersey post offices.

The amount of loot named in Tuesday's indictment was $680,000 but Hoey's office said the total might run to more than $1 million in stamps and money orders.

SKOPJE, A YEAR LATER—In July, 1963, this district in Yugoslavia was totally devastated by one of the most severe earthquakes in Europe's history. Now much of the city is back to normal, although wooden huts have replaced the brick houses destroyed in the disaster. This huddled settlement was presented by the World Council of Churches, one of the many international organizations to give aid.

He added that they "will see to it that this same policy continues to be followed and... they will make this intention known next November at the polls."

Virus of Non-Involvement

Still more stories in the news about persons in distress vainly pleading for help and being ignored by passersby.

In Dallas a young man lay under a street light near a busy intersection for 30 minutes while passing motorists offered no assistance. He had been shot in the mouth, chest and left side.

Another instance was the young man who went swimming while on a picnic with his girl friend. When he sank in the water she pleaded with other adults in the picnic area to go to his rescue. They stood still while the lad drowned.

These incidents are becoming so repetitious it appears like a peculiar 20th Century virus. When someone needs help nobody wants to become involved.

Does this virus have any relationship to what can be observed of the attitude of certain people in connection with the current political campaigns. Some persons who are ordinarily outspoken and frankly offer help to one or another candidate, are non-committal. They don't want to get involved. They have the haunting suspicion that by speaking out they may become victims of some kind of reprisal. A business might be hurt, a job jeopardized. They conjure up all sorts of dire consequences at the hands of factional leaders if perchance they supported a candidate who didn't get elected. So they keep their mouth shut, play it safe, and don't become involved.

That may be proper protective technique up to a certain point, including the sanctity of the secret ballot.

But the attitude of not wanting to become involved in politics can be and sometimes is carried to an illogical, impotent conclusion — that of the voter not even going to the polls to vote for anyone.

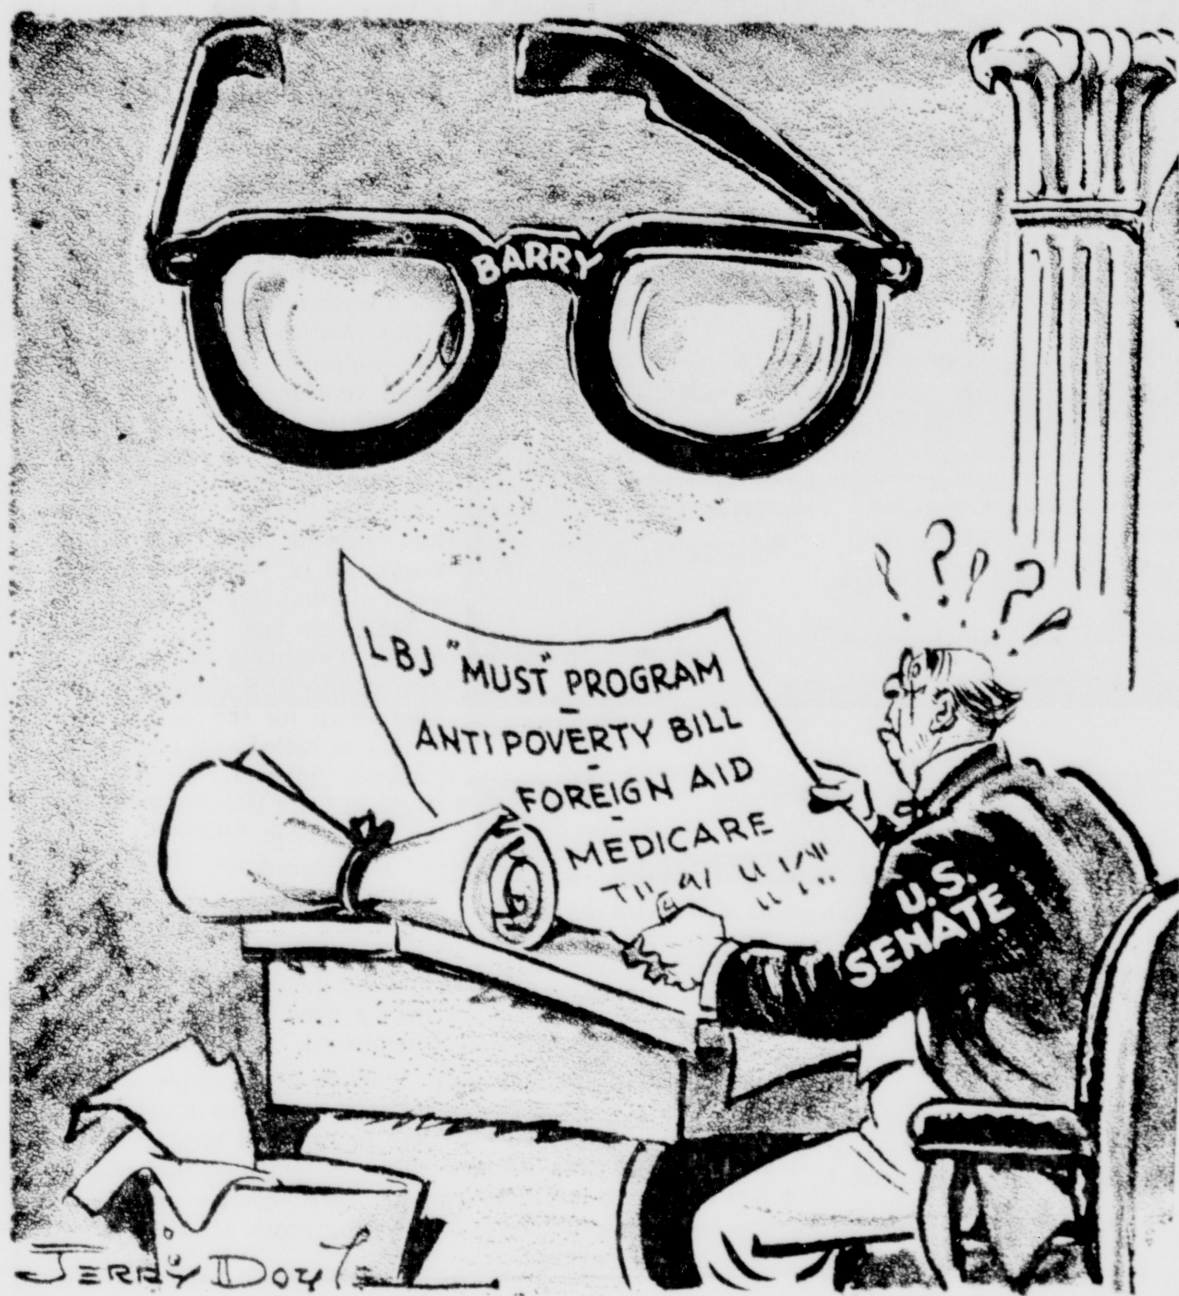

This kind of sensitivity is carrying non-involvement to an extremity comparable to that of the thin-skinned individuals who lack the courage to help victims of accidents or violence about which we read so much lately.

Although it may take great courage to reveal your political intentions, less of it is required in going to the polls and voting for candidates in the primary election next Tuesday.

At least let's become involved to the latter extent.

The World Today

The Senate's Lid On Interests

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — You won't know for years, at least, how much income your senator may have in addition to his salary or where he got it, unless he volunteers the information. He's going to keep his outside financial interests, if any, to himself.

That's the long and short of what happened this week when senators were confronted with various proposals that they reveal their income for public scrutiny.

Instead, the Senate supported an idea of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, Senate Republican leader and long-time foe of efforts to make the Senate do unto itself what it does to others: disclose outside income.

The Dirksen idea calls for a commission to make a two-year study of the whole question of morals among employees of government in all its branches. But the Senate still wouldn't have to do anything about itself, no matter what the commission recommended.

Years ago Congress passed, and later tightened, a law to prevent conflict of interest among employees of the executive branch of government, such conflict meaning the mixing of a government job with personal outside gain.

For example: men appointed to high position by the president must get rid of stock they hold in companies dealing with the government. But this does not apply to members of Congress or its employees.

Congress has been urged to take action about itself for more than a dozen years by some liberal senators like Paul Douglas of Illinois and Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania. Democrats and Clifford P. Case, New Jersey Republican.

In 1951 Douglas headed a committee which proposed that Congress set up a commission on ethics in government and that all members of Congress and government employees making above a fixed sum in salary be compelled to disclose their income, assets, and all dealings in securities and commodities.

Congress brushed it off. The whole question got new life last year in the Senate's embarrassment of Bobby Baker, who had been secretary of the Democratic majority in the Senate for years. He quit his job last Oct. 7.

This was when it became known he had wide-ranging interests and deals while working for the Senate. The Senate then authorized its Rules Committee to investigate to see whether Baker's outside activities had conflicted with his official duties.

The Senate additionally authorized investigation into the financial or business interests or activities of any officer or employee of the Senate but—the Senate didn't authorize an investigation of any senator who might have been mixed up with Baker.

The Rules Committee disclosed that while Baker's Senate majority pay was $19,600 a year he had accumulated a business fortune of $447,849. He refused to testify and thus avoided answering any questions.

In its final report July 9 the committee accused Baker of "many gross improprieties." As a result of its work the committee proposed that senators be required to identify their outside financial interests.

Specifically, this called for senators and Senate employees earning over $10,000 a year to disclose yearly their major outside financial interests but not the value of their holdings nor the income derived from them.

The Senate squelched this. It did the same to an even tougher proposal by Sen. John J. Williams, Delaware Republican who triggered the Baker investigation. He wanted senators and their employees to list each asset, in addition to disclosing their income tax returns.

The Senate also threw out a move by Clark to require a detailed listing of all holdings, income and gifts. So the Senate, which is quick to dig into the private doings of other government employees, isn't opening any windows on itself.

Yet the Bobby Baker case will probably be an issue, and no doubt an unpleasant one, in this year's presidential race.

Democrat Pick-ups

In one of the beauty shops the noonday customers bring their lunch as well as those working in the shop.

One day a woman working in the shop picked some green beans, brought them to the shop with her and put them on to cook, thinking she would have them for lunch. One of the owners of the shop lives there and has a woman fix lunch for her, her husband and the other owner, while they are working.

This particular day they went into the kitchen found the lunch the woman had prepared on the stove along with the beans. They had no way of knowing she had not fixed the beans, too, so they ate what she had prepared plus the beans and commented no end on the delicious meal, feeling the cook had really gone overboard with that day's lunch.

Just as they finished the operator came in with: "Well, I guess I'll eat my beans now."

"Beans!" they all exclaimed in unison, and then somebody quickly explained that there were no beans and why.

A day or so later an operator whose husband always fixes a lunch for her and puts it in a sack, reached for the brown sack when she was ready to eat.

"My," she commented, "this sandwich is good. My husband certainly did an extra job on this sandwich — it is delicious."

A little later a woman customer who was there for the noon hour picked up a brown paper sack, took out the sandwich and said: "This isn't my lunch — does anybody know where my sack is?"

Nobody knew anything about it, and it was the only sack there.

"But this isn't mine," the customer insisted. "This is a chicken sandwich and I don't like chicken sandwiches."

Then it dawned on the operator what had happened. She never knows what is in her sack and just picked up the wrong sack, and ate the other woman's sandwich. Something is going to have to be done about the food situation there—maybe they had better start putting their names on the food they bring with a sign: "Hands off, this belongs to . . . —H. L."

THE MOLES seem to be taking the yard at one home and so there has been a real war on moles going on here. Very successfully the man of the house had put the water hose a couple of times in the freshly dug tunnels and brought the moles to the surface so he could kill them. Then, one morning

Lying Isn't Contagious

By Susan Light
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: I want you to know I enjoy your column so much and the way you put things across. I have a problem you may have had before.

A neighbor boy, 10, is such a little liar, and my little girl, 10 also, believes everything he tells. I am so afraid it may cause her to do the same. The boy's mother says he will grow out of it, but I feel that a 10-year-old child knows better, and his mother should teach him now.

I want to do the right thing by my own child without causing any hard feeling with friends. I teach her that lying is wrong and everyone should go by God's word. I would love to know your viewpoint on this matter. — CONCERNED MOMMY

ANSWER: You deserve credit for teaching your child the old-fashioned virtues in a modern world. If all mothers were concerned with their children's learning the difference between right and wrong, what a bright world this would become.

To get down to cases though, I don't believe you need worry about the neighbor boy's effect on your daughter. As a school girl, she has undoubtedly associated with childish "liars" for several years. If she hasn't picked up the habit by this time you can be reasonably certain your teaching has been effective.

School teachers know that almost any child will lie on occasion — especially if faced with paying the consequences for a misdeed. It takes more fortitude than most children possess to come up with "I did it with my little hatchet."

Where's he tall-tale type of lying is concerned, children must gradually be taught the difference between the real and the fanciful. Santa Claus, the Easter Bunny, and Goldilocks are among the latter — but who would want to take them away from small children? At 10, however, a child should assume some responsibility for being honest — if he has been guided in the right direction.

The very fact that your daughter believes your neighbor shows she expects honesty in others because she's truthful herself. This is wonderful — but help her avoid gullibility.

We the Women

Share Leisure Activities

By Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

One way to keep a marriage from becoming humdrum is for the couple to put to stimulating use the leisure time they share.

The wife who stays at home shares little in her husband's career. It takes him away from home all day and when he returns at night he is reluctant to talk about it, either because anything he tells will require too much explaining, or because he has had enough of business during the day and wants to escape from it.

early, when he had an extra few minutes before going to work he went out in the yard, saw a tunnel and stuck the hose in it. But it didn't happen to be a fresh tunnel. It was an old one that was hard and the water didn't soak in — it backfired, spraying mud all over him. He managed to wipe the mud off his shirt which dried quickly and didn't show — but not the pants. Before he could go on to work he had to go in the house and change his mud-spattered pants, and consequently was a few minutes late for work.—H. L.

His wife's daytime existence, if she spends her full time keeping house, is much too routine to interest her husband. What she can tell him about her day that he will find interesting can be told in 10 minutes.

That means that if they are to enjoy each other's company and feel any sort of comradeship they must find it in the way they spend their leisure time together.

Many couples ignore that fact and squander their free time together.

One evening is just like another. They sit and read, or watch television, or they play cards or she sits upstairs and sews while he tinkers in the basement. But mostly they just sit. Is it any wonder they are bored with each other's company? Or that they have little to say to each other?

A planned use of that same leisure time would pep up many dull marriages. The leisure could be used to learn something together, or to enjoy some new kind of recreation.

A couple that is working side by side in the yard, refinishing furniture, learning a foreign language, playing golf or working on some community welfare project isn't bored.

They have a common interest to discuss and projects to share. They don't work at killing time and so their leisure hours pass companionably.

LBJ Ready for Barry When They Met

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Here is the inside story of what happened when Sen. Barry Goldwater, Republican nominee for president, called on the man whom only one week before he had called a faker and a phony.

Both men were polite and cordial. However, President Johnson took the initiative from the start and didn't relinquish it. Without saying so, he made it fairly clear that he was calling the shots in the coming campaign.

Goldwater didn't refer to the bitter words he had hurled at the president at San Francisco, but it was fairly clear that he was not too happy about holding the interview. He came in the southwest White House door, a side-door where the press is not permitted to stand watch, 23 minutes early and waited patiently for the time of his appointment to arrive.

After the brief 16 minute meeting, Goldwater ducked down the backstairs and scooted out the side-door while a crowd of newsmen and TV cameras were waiting for him to come out the front door.

The president opened up the conference by outlining what his administration had already done to head off violence over civil rights. He ticked off five separate items:

The conference with business leaders to secure compliance; the conference with labor leaders to secure acceptance, the telegrams which President George Meany of the AFL-CIO had sent to union leaders at the White House suggestion to get compliance and acceptance; the cooperation worked out with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce; and finally the work of civil rights adviser Leroy Collins, former governor of Florida and Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges, former governor of North Carolina, with local southern communities.

Hello and Good-Bye

Johnson then told Goldwater what he had said at his press conference one hour earlier, that no important issue could escape discussion during a presidential election.

"I heard what you had to say," replied the Republican candidate, "and I feel the same way."

He added that he didn't want to be in the position of inciting any trouble.

The president then handed the senator from Arizona a joint communique which he had drafted in advance. It was only 38 words long and stated that the president had reviewed the steps taken to prevent the incitement of racial tensions, that Sen. Goldwater had expressed his view that racial tensions should be avoided, and that both agreed on this position.

Goldwater read over the statement, gave his approval, shook hands, and departed by the side-door—all in 16 minutes.

One high official later described the talk as "cordial and limited." The latter word was an understatement.

More Race Riots?

Racial trouble in southern California is predicted by Rep. Gus Hawkins, D-Calif., if California repeals the Rumford Act which bans housing discrimination.

Hawkins is the first Negro elected to Congress west of the Mississippi River. Slender, quiet-spoken, he is the opposite of handsome, fast-talking Adam Clayton Powell of Harlem, who is a gifted orator, an emotional Baptist preacher, and an inveterate junketeer. Hawkins talked dispassionately about the upcoming California vote over repealing the Rumford Act which bans any racial discrimination in buying, selling, or renting houses.

It's a battle which finds the California Real Estate Association and James Francis Cardinal McIntyre plus the Goldwaterites all on one side; while younger priests of the Catholic Church, the Negroes, and Gov. Pat Brown are on the other.

The outcome may well determine whether California goes for Goldwater in November. It will also decide, according to Congressman Hawkins, whether Southern California bursts into racial riots.

Hawkins is a moderate who urges members of his race to give the new civil rights law time to have some effect. He favors the moderate tactics of the NAACP.

"But if the Rumford Act is repealed," said the first Negro congressman from the west, "more militant methods will be in order. It will encourage more irresponsible leadership. Those of us who have tried, may not be able to prevent those who want to take the racial crisis into the streets."

"I hope and pray that southern California will not see any incidents like those in Harlem. I don't think Los Angeles will become a rumbling cauldron like upper Manhattan. Its living conditions are not so dense and employment is better; so it lacks some of the ingredients which could bring it to a full boil."

"Nevertheless, a victory for proposition 13," said Hawkins, meaning repeal of the Rumford Act, "would tremendously increase the possibility of trouble."

Hawkins believes that the California Real Estate Association is dominated by the right wing and members of the John Birch Society, but does not represent the majority of realtors. The majority, he believes, oppose repeal of the Rumford racial equality act.

Whiteman Air Base Is Out Of Semi-Pro Tournament

Tonight only one game is to be played in the Missouri State Non-Pro Baseball Tournament due to the Anderson (Mo.) ball club forfeiting their game to Columbia Western Auto. The game is expected to be one of the highlight contests of the tournament, although it is in the losers bracket as the Independence Cheatan Oldsmobile and the Fulton Sports meet. Game time has been set for 8 o'clock.

It is well noted that Independence and Jefferson City played a 19-inning 2-1 affair last week, while Fulton met West Plains in a losing game 1-4.

Fulton and Jefferson City have played four games this season and both teams won two. This gives an indication as to what Fulton has, and fans saw Independence in that long contest last Friday night.

Commissioner George Ray announced the game will not be played under the "boottail" rules and will go the full nine innings.

Other Game Schedule
Thursday Night
7 o'clock
Art Gaines School vs Columbia Merchants
9 o'clock
Columbia Western Auto vs Winner of Independence-Fulton game
Friday Night
7 o'clock
West Plains vs Bolivar
9 o'clock
Jefferson City vs Sedalia Merchants

The Sedalia Merchants in Tuesday night action defeated Bolivar 6-3 to remain in the winners bracket and move out to meet the 1963 defending champions, the Jefferson City Red Birds. Bolivar dropped back to the losers bracket to meet West Plains Blues on Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Jefferson City and Sedalia will meet in the 9 o'clock Friday night game.

In the other Tuesday night game The Columbia Merchants eliminated Whiteman AFB, in a 14-6 game which ended at the end of the top of the seventh inning.

The nightcap game of the Tuesday schedule gave the local fans a nine-inning game between the Sedalia Merchants and Bolivar.

The Sedalians picked up an edge of three at the start of the game with a rally in the top of the first inning. Marshal Bryan walked. Bill Hill doubled to right field scoring Dey. Charles Newman safe on Claspill's error who threw wide to first. Hill and Crank scored. Morgan up. Error on catcher Davis. Newman to third. Morgan grounded out short to first. Three runs, two hits and two errors.

Bolivar picked up a run in its half of the inning. Robert Looney grounded to the pitcher. Darrol Step grounded to Kubli unassisted. Mike Kirksey beat out an infield hit. Gary Griffin rapped a three base hit to right field scoring Kirksey. Darrol Claspill grounded to second. One run, two hits and no errors.

Both teams scored in the third. The Sedalians made their when Bowes struck out. Crank grounded to the pitcher. Hill walked. Newman was safe on the centerfielder's error, and

Schnakenberg Holds Mexico To Lone Run

Jim Schnakenberg yielded only four hits and registered 14 strikeouts Tuesday night as the Sedalia Ban Johnson Chiefs racked up their 14th straight league victory with an 8-1 win over Mexico at Mexico.

Schnakenberg walked only three batters and the win boosted his record to 6-0. He went the distance.

The Chiefs collected a total of 13 hits while committing three errors. Mexico produced three errors also.

Sedalia took a 2-0 lead in the first and Mexico scored their lone tally in the third. The Chiefs came back with two more in the fifth and were never threatened again.

Lonnie Schott and Paul Horner slammed a double and a single each, while Tim Morgan, Bernie Dow and Bob Lange all accounted for two singles apiece. Other hits went to Butch Walker with a double, Jerry Barr and Steve Young, one single each.

The Chiefs take on Lexington tonight at Lexington with the players leaving at 6 p.m. from Broadway Realty, 1911 West Broadway. Next Tuesday night, Aug. 4, Sedalia plays Columbia.

Computer's Ideal Woman Is Shapely

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Miss Formula is the apple of Calcomp plotter's eye — after all, she was partly its idea.

The plotter, which displays computer information, took time out from drawing weather maps, oil field findings, brain waves and molecular structures to sketch its idea of the perfect female form.

From toe to tip, bikini-clad Miss Formula rolled out of the machine. Calcomp's solution: height, 5 ft. 6 in.; weight 115-118 lbs.; and, predictably, 36-24-36.

Fillies Take 'Bugs

In a runaway contest Tuesday night in girls' Khoury league softball the Fillies whipped the Lady Bugs, 29-9, in a chic league game.

Only two homers were seen in the contest, both for the Fillies. One was in the first inning by Beverly Morris with two on. The second was by Teresa Davis in the fourth with the bases loaded.

Barbara Davis was the winning pitcher for the Fillies, with four strikeouts to her credit. Maryln Lower absorbed the loss for the Lady Bugs. She had three strikeouts.

AL Roundup

LA Takes NY, Snaps a String

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dean Chance doesn't know it, but he's in trouble.

He's a Yankee-killer, full-fledged, thorough-going and heavily credentialled. He's the best in the world at the obscure art, succeeding Frank Lary in the position.

And you know what happened to Lary. He's with the Mets. And that, old buddy, is trouble. Chance, however, has no sign of the arm trouble that sent Lary, one-time Yankee nemesis, from the Tigers to the minors and eventually to Casey Stengel's hapless heroes.

The Los Angeles Angel right-hander stopped New York's American League leaders on just two hits Tuesday night, 3-1, snapping the Yanks' five-game winning string but not disturbing their leading margin.

One of the Yank hits was a homer by Mickey Mantle in the seventh, the first New York run off Chance in 37 innings, a string that stretched back to Sept. 25, 1963.

Chance got all the support he needed from Jim Fregosi, who hit for the cycle, lashing a two-run homer in third and adding a triple, double and single.

The Yankees, however, retained a full-game lead over Baltimore, 7-4 losers to Minnesota. Detroit beat Chicago 6-3. Washington edged Cleveland 4-3 and Kansas City nipped Boston 2-1 in the other American League games, all at night.

Chance, now 10-5 for the season, including five in a row, struck out eight and walked only two. Aside from Mantle's 20th homer, the only other New York hit was a single by Clete Boyer.

Detroit got maximum mileage out of only four hits in its comeback triumph over the White Sox. Gates Brown tied it for the Tigers with a two-run homer in the sixth. George Thomas added the go-ahead run on a sacrifice fly, and a double by Al Kaline, a single by Norm Cash, a stolen base and an error added two more in the eighth.

Minnesota, loser of 14 of its last 16 games, revived its power in the decision over Baltimore. Zoilo Versalles cracked two home runs, Jimmie Hall had a two-run blast and Don Mincher a solo drive. Jerry Adair and Brooks Robinson had homers for the losers.

Symington Favors Beef Import Quota

WASHINGTON (AP) — Area senators generally voted for a bill, opposed by the administration, which would embargo imports of beef, veal and mutton. The Senate passed the bill Tuesday 72-15.

Among those voting for passage were Symington, D-Mo.; Carlson, R-Kan.; Edmondson and Monroney, D-Okla.

Not voting, but paired for the bill were Pearson, R-Kan. and Long, D-Mo.

Bunning Slips

Phils Lengthen NL Leadership

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim (Perfect Game) Bunning is slipping and if he keeps it up the Philadelphia Phillies are liable to slide right into their first National League pennant in 14 years.

Bunning, you see, is undergoing the jinx that strikes so many no-hit pitchers. The poor fellow has struggled through July with just two victories. He can't seem to beat anybody anymore—that is anybody except the second place San Francisco Giants.

The lanky ex-American Leaguer baffled the Giants for 8 1/3 innings Tuesday night before leaving for Jack Balderson, who fed a double play ball to Willie McCovey to wrap up a 4-0 Phillie victory in the opener of a crucial three-game series.

It was only Bunning's third victory in the five weeks. Two of these victories have come against the Giants and Phillie Manager Gene Mauch couldn't have hoped for a healthier hex.

The Giants couldn't do a thing with Bunning for 5 1/3 innings and visions of another no-hitter (only three pitchers have ever put two classics together in one summer) had Phillie fans excited. But Hal Lanier's single broke the spell in the sixth. Gus Trianoos, meanwhile, provided his batterymate with all the runs he needed in the fourth inning with a three-run homer, his first circuit in three months and only his second of the season.

After Lanier's hit, Bunning surrendered a bunt single to Matty Alou in the eighth. Willie Mays opened the Giant ninth with the third hit and when Orlando Cepeda singled one out later, Mauch called for Balderson.

The reliever needed just one pitch to chalk up his 11th save and preserve Bunning's 10th victory. McCovey's double play grounder ended it and extended Philadelphia's National League lead to 1 1/2 games.

Elsewhere in the NL, Milwaukee edged Cincinnati 3-2, Los Angeles routed New York 9-0, and St. Louis topped Chicago 12-7. Houston and Pittsburgh were rained out.

Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole had stifled the Braves on one hit, Mike de la Hoz' fourth homer, when an electrical storm delayed the game 45 minutes. Sammy Ellis took over the Reds' pitching and the Braves promptly clipped him for four hits and two runs in the seventh to win it.

Don Drysdale, who five days ago suffered a hairline fracture of his right thumb, hurled his fourth shutout of the season blanking the Mets.

The Cardinals pushed five runs across in the 10th inning with Mike Shannon's two-run homer climaxing the surge against the Cubs.

Memory of Torture Revived
In Nazi War Crime Trials

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A skinny boy stood on his tip toes, swaying slightly back and forth. He strained every muscle in an attempt to touch a bar hanging 5 feet 5 inches above the ground.

He couldn't make it and broke into sobs.

That bar meant the difference between life and death. Had he touched it, he would have lived a little longer as a slave laborer in one of the Nazis' 250 concentration camps.

This is one of the memories of tortured childhood revived in this summer's war crimes trials in West Germany.

Witnesses' descriptions of suffering and courage often caused judges and courtroom spectators to weep.

WASHINGTON (AP)—New measures for stepping up the war against Communist guerrillas reportedly are nearly ready for announcement by the United States and Viet Nam. Sources said they do not involve expanding the war into North Viet Nam.

Prime Minister Nguyen Khanh of South Viet Nam is expected to announce the new measures next week.

Speculation on steps for bolstering the fight against the Communist guerrillas include these possibilities: sending more U.S. planes, increasing the U.S. training program and sending more U.S. military advisory forces.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approximately 200 tourists had an unexpected surprise Sunday—a tour of the White House grounds conducted by President Johnson.

After the Johnsons returned to the White House from church services, the President saw a group standing outside a gate of the White House grounds. He shook hands with some, then invited them into the grounds for a walk. About 100 tourists joined him.

Then he walked to another gate and invited about 100 more to join in the walk. After a stroll around the grounds, the President said he had to go to lunch and the tourists departed.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, who held separate meetings last week with business and labor leaders, has issued invitations to a large group of educators to meet with him in the White House.

While the White House said the President will be prepared to discuss with the educators any matters they want to bring up, it is expected he will urge their cooperation in helping smooth compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

Bunceton CWF
Gives Memorial
For Mrs. Jones

A memorial was read for the late Mrs. Rachel Jones, a member of Bunceton Church Women's Federation of Bunceton Baptist Church, at the July meeting at the church.

Contributive luncheon was served.

Mrs. D. T. Layne, president, presided. "Sweet Hour of Prayer" was sung. Mrs. Jim Moore was program leader and gave scripture. A poem, "God Is Good," was read by Mrs. Riley Edwards. Mrs. Louis Hurt gave closing prayer.

Mrs. C. T. Nelson gave secretary's report. Treasurer's reports were given by Mrs. Earl Scott.

Reports were given about Bible School and Memorial Day services held at Masonic Cemetery. Appreciation was expressed for donations made to repair the bridge on the sidewalk to the cemetery.

Letters of thanks were read by Mrs. Nelson from the American Bible Society and Mercy Hospital, Kansas City, for donations made by the Bible School.

Gains in U. S. church membership in 1961 were about equal to population gains, with members of all faiths totaling 114,449,217.

Witnesses have related that nearly all Jewish and Slavic children who arrived at the camps were killed immediately by gassing, shooting, beating, hanging or injections of carbolic acid administered into their heart muscles. They have testified that babies born to women inmates were tossed alive into ovens or into open fires so as to spare the costs of more expensive methods of murder.

They have described how the SS Elite Guard staged mock courts to terrify older children before executing them. They have told of medical "experiments" performed without anesthetics on youngsters by SS physicians and how some children fought their tormentors with a ferocity spawned by desperation.

By 1941—when the Nazi death factories were running in high gear—the SS was exterminating all children under 15 who arrived. Then Heinrich Himmler discovered that his blanket rule tended to slow the flow of slave laborers to industrial plants built by leading German firms in or near the camps.

He modified his order, sparing children too tall to pass under the 5-foot-5 bar. He thought children that tall were strong enough to work on slave labor projects where adult male inmates had an average life expectancy of three months.

Witnesses have related how children—knowing the gas chambers awaited them if they failed the size test—stood on tip toes in vain attempts to show how big they were.

When they failed they often ran among their examiners—sembled SS men—flexing their arms muscles and shouting they were strong enough to perform any labor demanded of them. Their pleas to live were almost invariably rejected.

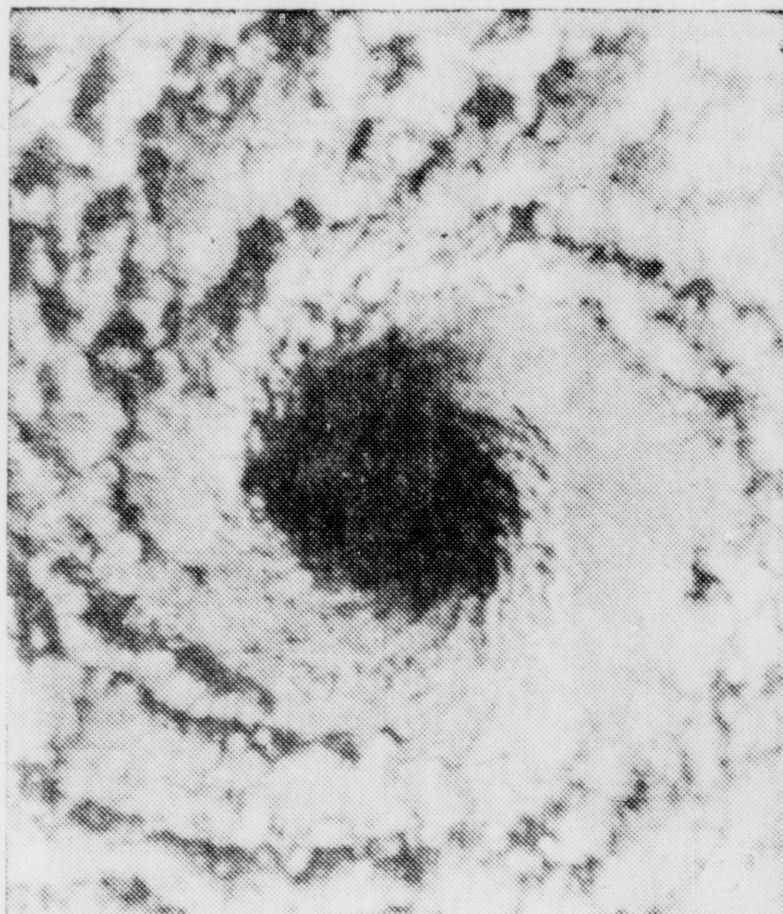

Sometimes they were spared, only to be forced to kill their own parents in a manner designed to "amuse" the SS—such as holding the head of a bound and gagged father in a water trough until he drowned, or pulling the trigger of a gun against a mother's forehead.

Children who refused were tossed with their parents alive into the camps' crematorium ovens or onto open, gasoline-fed fires burning to ashes the gas chambers' victims.
